WE'RE BA-ACK!!!!

What a grand time we had on Saturday morning!

Thanks to everyone who was there (in person and via Zoom - THANK YOU, LEAH!) for our historic reunion! It was just wonderful to see your smiling faces (even with masks on I could tell you were beaming) ! Our first attempt at actually singing together in well over a year went amazingly well. I had a musician friend tell me recently that it would be "just like riding a bike" - I guess he was right. I mean, it was a bit rusty around the edges - but we made some terrific sounds!

We discovered that the patio breezeway is an excellent spot for ringing chords - it was in the shade and has low concrete ceiling - so we could all hear very well. And we entertained a few passers-by, including one very handsome chap, a large black poodle named Bruce Lee. He adopted us all and really didn't want to leave! Turns out that rehearsing right there may be a good way to bring in potential new members - even of the canine variety :-)

Thanks to everyone who helped to make our long-awaited "return to normal" happen. Bravo! We'll be back there again next Saturday - same time, same place! I'll see you then (and tonight on Zoom).
It's great to be BACK in BUSINESS!!!

Unfortunately, I now have three legs!
